March 2014

*I lift up my eyes to the hills; from where is my help to come?
My help comes from the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth. ~ Psalm 121:1-2*

From the Rector...

Thanksgiving weekend our young granddaughters who live in South Jersey came for a two night sleep-over. We had a Christmas gift project we'd been planning since August and time was running out. By Saturday afternoon the project was completed and they had decorated gift bags for each of their parents to hold the gifts they had made. The girls and I were in the den, each kind of doing our own thing, and Papaw John was in the living room reading. At some point eight year old Hannah gathered what she was playing with and decamped to the living room. John told me later that after playing for a while in there Hannah said, "Papaw, it's very quiet at your house." John asked her if it was ever quiet at her house. She said, "Yes, but not like this," and went back to playing.

These little girls are blessed with parents who see that they aren't continually glued to the television or computer or iPad. They read every day. They also spend a lot of time involved in wonderfully imaginative play and love creative crafting of one kind or another. But the one thing about the homes they live in is that they are seldom quiet. There's almost always music playing and/or an adult on the phone. And sometimes it's just plain noisy and chaotic given that they are young, energetic and not always completely cooperative. The point is that Hannah experienced the quiet of our house as a distinct kind of quiet worth commenting about.

Lent will be here before we know it. Ash Wednesday is March 5, and with that we enter those forty days until Easter that the Church has set aside as a time of preparation. For many centuries the emphasis has been on "giving up" something. The thinking is that depriving ourselves of something we enjoy or something we're used to will help us be more aware of things that really matter. And the fact is that, properly done, this can be a very valuable tool for deepening our spiritual awareness about what really matters. But it sometimes seems that Lenten disciplines can be little more than a kind of religious "New Year's resolution" concerned more with losing a few pounds or trying to kick some less-than-healthy habit than with nurturing and strengthening our relationship with God.

You and I live in a time and culture that worships distraction. So many things in our lives that used to be considered "options" have morphed into "have-tos"...even the things we supposedly do for fun! And we're way too "busy" for the kinds of things that might bring us joy and contribute our wholeness and well-being like taking a walk without the cell phone pressed to our ear or driving in the car with the radio turned off so we can actually hear ourselves think. Lent could be a fruitful time to become more aware of what distractions we've allowed to commandeer our lives that sap our energy and dull our senses and stifle our imagination.

In my experience, God doesn't command us to do things that might be inconvenient in our hectic lives as much as he invites us to reorder our priorities in a ways that, amazingly, lead to a richer and deeper existence. This Lent, I wish for you that distinctive silence in you heart and mind that can only be described as holy. This Lent, I hope you will give priority to the observances of Lent this year...or in the words of the Book of Common Prayer: I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent... beginning on Ash Wednesday at Noon or 7:30 P.M.

Robin+

CHURCH PHOTO DIRECTORY

Our online photo directory is so easy to keep up to date but we need your help. Go online and check out the directory. Let the parish office know if there are corrections needed for your family listing AND if there is no picture, PLEASE email one to the parish office at sjcparishoffice@verizon.net.

A photo directory is invaluable to our interim rector, Robin (and down the road, our new rector) to learn our names. But it only works if we have your picture.

Email the parish office with "directory" on the subject line for the link and password to the online directory

ST. JAMES' ANNUAL AUCTION

"APRIL IN PARIS"

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 2014

We all enjoy the Annual Auction each year and it is time to start thinking about 2014. The auction is the biggest event at St. James' and requires the largest number of volunteers. There are all sorts of ways to volunteer and be a part of the fun.

!!!!WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!!

The Auction Committee needs volunteers

Behind the Scenes Committees:

Donor Callers	Dinner/Desserts Planning	Decorating Planning	Raffle Sales
Make Announcement on Sunday		Assemble Baskets	Mailings
Bulletin Board Display	Computer Help	Set Up of Live and Silent Auction Areas

Night of Auction Committees

Check In/Check Out Room	Live Auction	Silent Auction	Greeters
Bid Recorders	Clean Up	Anything else we can think of

Contact the parish office to find out how you can volunteer!

WE WANT YOUR STUFF!

The 2014 St. James' Auction is now accepting donations. Here's what we are looking for:

Handcrafted Items

Food Gift Baskets

Artwork

New or Regifted Items

Vacation Houses or Timeshares

Dinner Parties

Vintage Attic Treasures

Jewelry (handcrafted or in good condition)

Home Décor Accessories

Services (anything from handyman to professional)

Unique Experiences (Do you have an unusual occupation or passion to share?)

We are always in need of LARGE baskets, large bows and any gifts you may receive that you really don't know why you got!

You can "regift" them to the auction.

We cannot use large furniture or everyday clothing, but if you have something interesting, let us know.

Donations can be dropped off at the parish office or call the office to arrange pick-up.

If you drop a donation off when the office is closed, please make sure the item is marked for the auction.

Brrr.... February was a cold month! However, the calendar indicates that spring will be here in several weeks. With that in mind, the staff of the Thrift Shop is gradually decreasing the amount of winter related items that are available for sale to our customers. There will be unannounced special prices on selected items to make space for the change of seasons. Like the brightness of the Philadelphia Flower Show, the shelves and clothing racks will soon blossom with brighter colored items. The selection of items available at the shop is always changing. Browsers are always welcome. Come in during our hours (Mon through Thurs: 10 AM to 3 PM, and 1st and 3rd Sat: 9 AM to 1 PM) and hopefully be surprised at what you find.

Shirley Tompkin

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY AT ST. JAMES

We plan to meet weekly in the library after the 9 a.m. service for about an hour. We plan to use the Serendipity Bible for small groups as a guide and follow the Serendipity method. Our first study will last 6 weeks. The title will be "Accountability: Beyond Football and the Weather." Men can bring their own Bibles or use the ones in the library. Each session will have 3 parts: 1) small talk/get acquainted 2) Bible study 3) prayer.

The March Altar Flowers are offered in loving memory of

March 2

*George Fritze, Sr.
Sarah Schmid*

There are no Altar flowers during Lent

If you would like to offer the Sunday Altar Flowers in memory of or in thanksgiving of a loved one, please fill in the date you would like in the Altar Gild Flower Book locate on the table by the main entrance. Envelopes for payment are next to the book.

You can offer a lily in memory of or in thanksgiving of a loved one to be placed around the altar on Easter Sunday. The cost is $20 for one plant (please order just one plant and there is no limit on the number of names). Order envelopes can be found on the flower table in the hall or call the parish office. Orders are due by April 6

BOOK CLUB NEWS

The Book Club meets at Panera Bread in Exton (the Giant shopping center on Swedesford Road) the third Friday of each month at 11am. New members are always welcomed. Contact Peg Leister at kenapeg@aol.com for more information. We will be reading the following books:

- March: The Ambassadors by Henry James
- April: The Husband's Secret by Liane Moriarty

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2014 ~ ADVENTURES ON PROMISE ISLAND

Mark your calendars!

VBS 2014 will be held during the week of August 4th-8th, from 9:00-11:30 am.

We're very excited as we plan the curriculum entitled "Promise Island", focusing on Bible stories about God's promises to love and care for us. We'll be having lessons, skits, crafts, songs, games and snacks, all centered on the Biblical theme of each day.

We're reaching out to the congregation, asking for youth volunteers, ages 13 and older, to join us as junior and senior counselors. We also invite adult volunteers to donate their time and talent to the children of VBS. The good news...no special skills are needed, just a willingness to have fun and work with the children. We'll teach you everything you need to know!!

So please contact directors Judy Benne or Gail Gilbert, when you see us at church or via e-mail.

Judy: sbenne@dejazzd.com or Gail: gailsusanstuart@gmail.com

We appreciate and welcome both new volunteers, as well as our faithful veteran volunteers!
